User Awareness Workshop

on

ScienceDirect, SCOPUS and MENDELEY (Reference Management tool)

Place : Committee Room, Central Library

Date : January 22, 2020 (Wednesday)

Time : 3:00 pm - 5:00 pm

ScienceDirect

provides subscription-based access to a large number of E-Resources. It hosts over 12 million pieces of contents from academic journals and e-books. The journals are grouped into four main sections: Physical Sciences and Engineering, Life Sciences, Health Sciences, and Social Sciences & Humanities.

Scopus

is the largest abstracting and citation database of peer-reviewed literature and quality web sources with smart tools. It facilitates collaboration, rewards innovation and generates higher content value.

The use of a reference manager can be a powerful addition to research activities. Mendeley is a Reference Manager and Academic Social Network that can be used to manage references, research papers (PDFs), annotating your PDFs, taking searchable notes, citing while writing, automatically creating bibliographies, syncing account between multiple computers, collaborating, and discovering new research in the fields of interest.
